FIGHTING OF FIERCEST KIND CONTINUES ALONG SOISSONS-RHEIMS LOOP

BULLETIN

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE-MARNE FRONT, July 23.—By the Associated Press.—Information reaching the intelligence department of the American army tonight indicated that the Germans were still continuing their retreat.

Far behind their lines they are being subjected to a heavy fire by both French and American guns which doubtless is hampering the movement of their enormous supplies.

BULLETIN

PARIS, July 23.—Thirty-seven German airplanes were brought down or put out of action by French and British airmen yesterday. Four captive balloons were burned and many tons of bombs were dropped on German concentration points. This announcement is made in the official communication issued by the war office tonight.

BULLETIN

LONDON, July 23.—The French attack near Montdidier has progressed to the western edge of the wood north of Sauvillers-Mongival, which means a total advance of two miles.

This point is about 2,000 yards east of Mailly-Raineval and gives the French control of the heights dominating the valley of the Avre. Twelve hundred Germans were made prisoner.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The progress of the Franco-American offensive continues "entirely satisfactory," Secretary Baker said today. The war department, he added, has nothing from Generals Pershing or Bliss later than the Associated Press dispatches.

"We are taking more and more territory every day and the progress is made entirely satisfactory," he said.

BULLETIN

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE-MARNE FRONT, July 23.—By the Associated Press.—The American and French troops fighting south of Soissons have captured four German tanks which were operating against them in conjunction with the German infantry. The allied artillery immediately spotted the tanks as they came into action and quickly put four of them out of commission. Four others retreated.

BULLETIN

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE-MARNE FRONT, July 23.—By the Associated Press.—The fighting continued thruout today north and northeast of Chateau Thierry. The Germans by no means were slack in accepting the allied challenges and struck back with great vigor. The fighting immediately north of Chateau Thierry was so fierce as almost to rob it of suggestion that it was a rear-guard action. Nevertheless it was known that while the intense struggle was progressing the work of moving stores was underway.

At least at one point the fighting was more nearly in the open order than has been usual. With a minimum artillery fire by both sides the Americans advanced their skirmish line over yellow wheat fields, dotted with poppies and thru clumps of wood. It was Indian fighting modernized by Machine gun work.

The Germans left on the field a great number of machine gunners in nests. Many of these were captured and the entire personnel of a machine gun company tonight is swelling the already big list of prisoners taken by the Americans.

BULLETIN

LONDON, July 23.—Immediately south of the river Ourcq on the Aisne-Marne battle front, the advancing French forces are reported to have had very heavy fighting today. Nevertheless, they have succeeded in reaching aerial places on the railroad between Armentieres and Comancy. This part of the railroad is more than six miles to the east of Neuilly-St. Front.

The situation along the river Marne was unchanged today except that the Germans apparently overwhelmed some of the French troops across the river south of Vincelles and north of Dormans.

BULLETIN

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, July 23.—By the Associated Press.—A drenching downpour over the greater part of the southern battlefield hindered the operations of both the allies and the Germans last night and today. Farther north, however, French troops executed a remarkably brilliant minor operation between Moreuil and Montdidier attacking and capturing three villages around which very heavy fighting occurred in March and April. They are Mailly-Raineval, Sauvillers and Aubvillers, all situated on heights overlooking the Avre river. Their possession is of great importance.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE-MARNE FRONT, July 23.—By the Associated Press.—The allies continued today to tighten their vice-like grip upon the German salient around the curving line from Soissons to Rheims. The enemy is frantically bracing himself and is offering the stiffest resistance which is increasing as he gets his artillery in place.

The weather along the battle front this morning was inclement, rain and mist prevailing.

German reinforcements were reported today in the district to the east of Soissons at the tip of the German right flank on the Aisne-Marne line.

While fires were reported in the district to the north of the Marne last night there were no reports of similar conflagrations along the line south from Soissons or that running southwest from Rheims.

The indications this afternoon were that the Germans have determined not to give up additional territory along these flanks of their positions unless they are compelled to do so.

LONDON, July 23.—The French, mably designed as a diversion, attack near Montdidier today was aiming at keeping the enemy's mind occupied and preventing him from sending larger reinforcements to the southward. At the same time it also affected an

PLACES ALL WIRE SYSTEMS UNDER FEDERAL CONTROL

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Acting under the authority recently conferred by congress, President Wilson today issued a proclamation taking all telephone and telegraph lines under government operation and control at mid-night Wednesday, July 31.

Although congress empowered him to do so, the president did not include wireless systems, because the navy already is in control of them; and he also did not include ocean cables presumably because contracts the cable companies have with foreign governments on whose shores they land contain clauses respecting government operation which raised involved questions. The navy already is in practical control of the cables thru its censorship.

The president's proclamation placed administration of the wire systems with Postmaster General Burleson and provided that until otherwise decided the present managements and employees will continue.

Present financial arrangements also will continue with the approval of the postmaster general.

In a statement accompanying the president's proclamation Postmaster General Burleson announced to the country that his policy would be one of the least possible interference with the wire communication systems consistent with the interests and needs of the government.

Press wire service, Mr. Burleson said, would be interfered with only to improve its facilities and farmers' telephones would be interfered with only to facilitate their connection with the larger lines. General policy has been decided upon by the postmaster general announced and public notice will be given of any plans to change present arrangements.

Pledging to the public his best efforts for the most efficient service at the least cost the postmaster general declared he welcomed the suggestions and cooperation of the men who have built up the systems. Postmaster General Burleson will personally take charge of the administration of the wire communication and will be assisted by a committee of three composed of John L. Keons, first assistant postmaster general in subjects of organization and administration; David J. Lewis, former congressman from Maryland, now a member of the tariff commission on subjects of operation; and William H. Lamar, solicitor for the postoffice department on matters of finance.

Turbine Engine Industry.—Washington, July 23.—The government has assumed control of the turbine engine industry, twenty-one manufacturers of turbines are affected by the order. Manufacturers of turbines under 700 horse power do not come under the government supervision. The war industries board will supervise filling of orders for turbines of more than that rating.

ARREST WOMAN.—Freeport, Ill., July 23.—A warrant was issued this afternoon for the arrest of Miss Carrie G. Ruthe, charged with having declared that the killing of Captain A. F. Moseley of Freeport while on duty overseas, was just what he deserved. Other seditious utterances also are alleged.

BELGIAN RELIEF SHIP IS TOWED BY TUG

AN ATLANTIC PORT, July 23.—A large four-masted Belgian relief steamer passed here southbound in tow of the wrecking tug Resolute today. Her name could not be distinguished, but painted in large letters on her side were the words "Belgian Relief Ship." She apparently was not in distress and it was thought she was the steamer which was damaged in an explosion at a north Atlantic port several months ago and was being towed to another port to finish repairs. When she was first sighted, however it caused great excitement among shipping men. In the distance it looked as if her smokestack had been shot away and reports that she had been attacked by a raider spread rapidly.

BOSTONIAN APPOINTED.—Washington, July 23.—Thomas Nelson Perkins, a Boston lawyer, today was appointed an assistant to the secretary of war for purchase and supply to act during the absence in Europe of Edward R. Stettinius, second assistant secretary of war.

Important local communication in the line at a sector where every advance means better protection for Amiens and Paris, which the French attacked, on a four-mile front.

After an hour's bombardment of the German lines and captured all three villages of Sauvillers, Aubvillers and Mailly-Raineval within fifteen minutes.

About a thousand more prisoners have been counted by the entente allies in the past twenty-four hours. Of this number about half have been credited to the American and British, but as a matter of fact the allies just now are far too busy to devote much time to the counting of prisoners. Fighting of the fiercest character continues and the present to and fro struggling all along the Soissons-Rheims loop is very close.

War News Summary

News of Activities on Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

(By The Associated Press.)

The entente allied troops on the Soissons-Rheims salient continue to gain ground both on the western side of the battle front and on the south along the Marne and towards Rheims notwithstanding the increasing resistance of the Germans and bad weather prevailing on the southern part of the line.

While the latest gains recorded are not as great as those of previous days they have added position to strategic value to the allied line for the further prosecution of the efforts to clear the territory of the enemy. More prisoners, guns and war stores have fallen into the hands of the allied troops.

As a division of the French to the northwest, midway between Soissons and Amiens, have delivered a blow against the German line which has been productive of excellent results. Striking on a front of about four miles, General Foch's troops penetrated the enemy line for a distance of about two miles and the heights dominating the valley of the Avre river and the plains beyond. Fifteen hundred Germans were captured. The French war office statement refers to this fighting as a local operation.

South of Soissons the drive of the Franco-American forces to the west, Fore-en-Tardenois has pushed the Germans northward, standing force resistance the allied forces reached the railroad line between Armentieres and Comancy running southward to beyond it. This advance brings the French and American troops relatively to within seven miles of Fore-en-Tardenois and also gives them a dominating position for big gun play over the eastern section of the railway line running from Armentieres to Fore-en-Tardenois.

On the northern bank of the Marne to the east of Chateau Thierry the town of Jaulgonne from which the Americans retreated during the German offensive has been re-captured and left in the rear by the advancing troops. East of Jaulgonne the French likewise have advanced the line on the north bank of the Marne and clung to their newly won positions notwithstanding the violence of the German counter moves and the statement from the German war office that they were driven out.

Likewise southwest of Rheims, where the British are fighting with the French, strong enemy positions have been captured and the Allied lines advanced nearly a mile. The reinforced German front here stubbornly contested the advance but the British and French gained the advantage and in addition to inflicting heavy casualties took prisoners and five guns.

The British alone captured 300 Germans.

The counter attacks of the Germans continue with great violence. Where they are forced to give ground the Germans leave numerous machine gun nests in the open to aid in making secure the retreats.

The Germans apparently are fearful that the constant nibbling at their lines east of Amiens by the British foreshadow an early attack and they are sending a rain of gas shells over the Villers-Bretonneux sector as a precaution. The British on various sectors of the front in France and Flanders continue daily to make slight gains against the enemy and take prisoners and machine guns.

In Albania both the French and Italian troops are keeping up their pressure against the Austrians. In the latest reports from Rome and Paris considerable gains are credited to the allied troops and also the capture of important positions and prisoners and guns. An enemy submarine has sunk an American fishing schooner off the Maine coast.

POWER SHUT OFF

Because of necessary machinery changes at the power plant of the Jacksonville Railway & Light company all light and power service was annulled this morning between 12:30 and 2:30 o'clock. This fact occasioned some delay in the issuance of the Journal this morning.

BULLETIN

London, July 28.—According to careful estimates warranting acceptance says Reuter's correspondent on the French front, the Germans have employed between 60 and 70 divisions since July 15, and have lost 180,000 men killed, wounded and prisoners.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 23.—Club owners and presidents of the National League will meet in Washington tomorrow for a conference with Provost Marshal General Crowder and war department officials on Secretary Baker's ruling that the "work or fight" order applies to professional baseball, according to an announcement made here this afternoon by Harry Herrmann.

At tomorrow's conference, Mr. Herrmann said, an effort will be made to obtain the government's consent to continue baseball until the close of the season.

GOVERNMENT ACQUIRES 7,000 ACRES OF LAND

Rockford, Ill., July 23.—Details of the transfer of the land in Camp Grant cantonment to government will probably be completed this afternoon, it was announced today. The government acquires approximately 7,000 acres. No figures as to the amount of money involved were made public but it was said that almost without exception the government is acquiring the land at the figures fixed by the appraisers.

REFEED TO LONG RANGE BOMBARDMENT OF PARIS.

New York, July 20.—The first mention in German newspapers received here of the number of shots fired in the long range bombardment of Paris, within a specified period, is made in a special despatch from the Western Front published in the Cologne Gazette of May 28, which in a review of the day's activities, concludes with the statement that "thirty-five shots were fired at Paris."

HOOVER ADDRESSES LONDON GATHERING

Asserts There is no Need for Any Restrictions on the Volume of Breadstuffs to be Shipped to Allies.

London, July 23.—Reviewing what had already been done, in the way of increased production and saving in consumption by voluntary efforts and rationing, Mr. Hoover said the exertion of the American agricultural authorities and farmers had borne such fruit that "there will be no need during the next twelve months for any restriction on the volume of breadstuffs to be shipped to the European allies."

Continuing Mr. Hoover said: "It will be the joint conclusion of my colleagues in the European countries that we can get along with a less moderate mixture of other cereals in the loaf and thus provide better bread for the two hundred and twenty million people who are opposed to Germany."

At the main house luncheon J. Austin Chamberlain expressed in warm terms on behalf of the government, appreciation to Mr. Hoover and the people of the United States for the help rendered the common cause particularly thru the self sacrifice of a people in a land of plenty. "We have been able to ride over times of great difficulty and moments of grave anxiety as to the sustenance of our population," said Mr. Chamberlain, "for which we are under a lasting debt of gratitude to Mr. Hoover and the people of the United States. This has been America's portion of the war burden in the common fight for right, but now they have come to help us not in foodstuffs alone but with brave and gallant troops."

EXPECT DECISION ON WORK OR FIGHT ORDER

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Final decision as to the time when the work or fight regulations shall become applicable to baseball players is expected tomorrow. Representatives of the club owners were in conference today with Provost Marshal General Crowder and the people of the United States. This has been America's portion of the war burden in the common fight for right, but now they have come to help us not in foodstuffs alone but with brave and gallant troops.

SUBMARINE SINKS FISHING VESSEL OFF MAINE COAST

KENNEBUNK, PORT, Maine, July 23.—Four men landed in a dory at Cape Porpoise today reporting that their fishing schooner, the Robert and Richard of Gloucester had been sunk by a German submarine on Cape Porpoise at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Other dories were coming in behind them, they said.

The men stated that the schooner had been destroyed by a bomb. The submarine, they stated came out of the water a few hundred yards distant and sent a shell screaming over their

WILL BE ASKED TO FORM NEW AUSTRIAN CABINET

LONDON, July 23.—According to reports from Vienna published in the Morning Post, it is probably that Emperor Charles will ask Count Czernin, the former Austro-Hungarian foreign minister to form a new Austrian cabinet, says an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Amsterdam.

The conservative press of Berlin is urging the German government to give Austria a hint that for her to make Count Czernin premier would not be acceptable to Germany in view of the count's last speech in which they point out he had intimated that Germany's war aims were no longer of a defensive character. In accepting the resignation of the Syedler cabinet, Emperor Charles said he took such action because the premier had pointed out that he could no longer command a majority in the lower house. The emperor added however, that the difficulties were entirely personal as between the premier and a political party which had not assumed an attitude of opposition to the state, but on the contrary, would support another government pursuing the same general policy.

ROOSEVELT WOUNDED LEADING ATTACK

PARIS, July 23.—Major Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., received the wound from which he is suffering while leading an attack on a machine gun nest at Ploisy, southwest of Soissons on Friday. It was while at the head of his battalion that Major Roosevelt was shot behind the left knee.

The Paris edition of the Chicago Tribune says the major reached the American Red Cross hospital on Friday evening. An operation on his wound was performed at midnight by Lieutenant Colonel Joseph A. Blake, of New York.

The major's tag, which is worn by all wounded soldiers, reads: "Severe gunshot wound." It was technically described later as a "penetrating wound of the popliteal space." Surgeons say that it will be six weeks before the major returns to the front. In the excitement Major Roosevelt went over the top without a helmet and when wounded was in the midst of the Germans. The nest was cleaned out in the charge and the village of Ploisy soon afterward.

ASKED TO REDUCE COAL CONSUMPTION

CHICAGO, July 23.—Power plants both municipally and privately owned have been called upon to work out combinations which will reduce coal consumption to a minimum it was announced today by the Illinois fuel administration. If the plants fail to make voluntary arrangements to cut coal consumption, the fuel administration will enforce economic adjustments. The coal needs for Illinois for this year were estimated by the fuel administration to be 95,000,000 tons. Production at the highest weekly maximum yet attained promises an output of only 80,000,000 tons. The shortage of 15,000,000 tons, it was stated, will have to be borne by combination and co-operation among competitive power plants.

To bring about such economies a body known as the committee on power and unification and utilization has been appointed.

WILL CONSIDER THE ELECTION OF CHAIRMAN

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The Republican congressional campaign committee at a meeting to be held here next week will consider the election of a chairman it was announced today. Word was received that Representative Frank P. Woods of Iowa, chairman of the committee who was defeated for re-nomination recently in a primary has issued a denial of reports that he intends to resign the chairmanship.

Representative Woods, it was learned plans to leave soon for France. During his absence Representative Julius Kahn of California, vice chairman will act as head of the committee.

WAR DEPARTMENT PLANS TO HASTEN AND ENLARGE MILITARY ORGANIZATION

BULLETIN

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND, July 23.—By the Associated Press.—American aviators today took over from the British one of the most important seaplane stations on the English coast from which they will do continuous patrol duty over a large area of the sea.

The American aviators stationed on the English coast have heretofore been working as part of the British squadrons and this is the first purely American station in England. The taking over of the station was accompanied by a brief ceremony at which the American machines lined up on the field and the British and American airmen stood at salute when the American flag was run up.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—With probably not much more than a quarter of a million Americans engaged in the present battle, but with virtually a million others either in France or hastening across the ocean to join in the fight, General Foch has been able to turn the tables on the enemy and strike a blow that has changed the whole trend of the war.

Officials here, while fully recognizing the fact that the Americans are today only a comparatively small part of the vast forces the supreme commander is using in working out his strategic designs, realize that the American army going forward in a constantly increasing stream, is the governing factor in restoring the initiative to the allied forces. Plans are therefore taking shape rapidly at the war department to accelerate and enlarge the American military organization.

It is now virtually certain that General Foch will have at least 2,000,000 troops to supplement his allied armies before the present fighting season closes. Secretary Baker announced today the war department's new program embraces enlarged army appropriations, modifications of the draft ages to increase the reservoir of fighting men and plans for a larger mobilization of the army than any yet undertaken, would soon be ready for congress. He would give no details, but the plans probably aim at getting under arms without delay a total force not far short of the 5,000,000 figure widely discussed in congress when the subject was last under consideration there.

The fighting in the Aisne salient where the whole German offensive scheme has been upset if not definitely defeated by the bold strategy of General Foch has opened new possibilities.

There is increased need for haste in the opinion of officials in getting full American manpower ready to supplement the efforts that appear now to be taking shape toward hurling the enemy back all along the front and beginning the advance that will end only when victory has been achieved.

Reports today indicated that fully one-half of all ground won by the Germans in the Aisne salient already has been torn from the enemy's grasp and the French, British and American troops are still pressing on at last accounts. Mr. Baker said today that the last reports from General Pershing were satisfactory. It was clear however, that the minds of officials here are engrossed in preparations for offensive battles on an even larger scale.

ARREST GOVERNMENT INSPECTOR OF COATS

NEW YORK, July 23.—Agencies of the Council of National Defense were involved today in the nation-wide conspiracy of alleged bribery and graft in the manufacture of soldiers' rubber rain coats thru the arrest of Harry E. Lazarus, a member of the defense council's sub-committee supervising raincoat production. He is accused of attempting to bribe a government inspector.

Department of Justice agents also took into custody, Charles L. Fuller, chief government inspector for the New York manufacturing district, and it was announced he had confessed full details of the working of an extensive bribery system in connection with manufacturing of raincoats and other soldiers' clothing.

REFUSE REQUEST.

Washington, July 23.—The war industries board today refused in request of wholesale lumber dealers that it modify the ruling of July 2nd which provided that no manufacturer, dealer or others should accept orders for mail shipment above the maximum prices fixed on June 14.

AMERICAN AVIATORS LAND IN NOVA SCOTIA

HALIFAX, N. S., July 23.—Three American aviators from the Chatham, Mass. station who were picked up by a vessel ten miles off this port yesterday drifted for three days and nights along the North Atlantic Coast in a dirigible balloon without definite knowledge of their course or location.

The dirigible left the Chatham station Friday morning for patrol duty and immediately ran into a fog which completely engulfed the aviators until they were rescued and brought here. The men, apparently were unhurt. The aviators are W. G. Briscoe, W. B. Griffin and C. A. Upton, all Massachusetts men. The course over which their balloon travelled, if it continued in a straight line, was estimated at about 400 miles.

FOOD CONTROLLERS OF ALLIES MEET

Bend all your energies to the needs of how to whip the Hun.

Hoover is in England to gain personal knowledge of the food situation there. He can, perhaps, give the English a few pointers.

Many papers recently carried huge headlines in heavy type. "Seasons Is Taken." A little premature, it will be but a short time until it is true.

Razors are now being issued to the men of the American expeditionary force. Pershing wants clean faced clean men in his army.

Mexico seems to be more peaceful just now than for years. German propaganda has spent its force and Allied success overseas may have helped.

Pershing is a most modest man. His reports are brief and to the point. After the war he may have more time. The general is a busy and successful soldier, just now.

According to Amsterdam dispatches the crime wave in Germany is causing the government anxiety. The Kaiser gets the ex-ample to his people by the un-derstandable way in which he directs the war. His government is only reaping what they sowed.

The French caution to all is that our people should not be too sanguine as to the results of the present joint offensive and that we should not get our expectations too high. There is a great struggle to be gone through with before final victory is ours.

That the Department of Agriculture is wasting funds on needless investigations at a time when revenue is hard to raise, is the charge made by Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, when the agricultural stimulation bill was before the senate. He contended that the department is making investigations of subjects that have been understood for centuries. One of the items of appropriation which Senator Penrose pointed out as wholly or partly unnecessary because much or all of the work has already been done, or is being done by the states, reads as follows:

"For investigating the food habits of North American birds and mammals in relation to agriculture, horticulture and forestry, including experiments and demonstrations in the destroying of wolves, coyotes, weasels, dogs and other animals injurious to agriculture and animal husbandry, and for investigations and experiments in connection with the rearing of fur-bearing animals, including mink and marten, $394,820."

WAGES AND PRICES.—The eternal rivalry between wages and prices, which form the basis of every economic condition, is now more pronounced than ever before. But this rivalry does not settle anything. For the minute the price of a thing goes up the working man is immediately forced to ask for more wages. This increases the cost of everything produced by human labor and immediately there is another increase. So it goes on until conditions finally become intolerable. There is a readjustment and the world gets back once more to a common sense basis. War always creates artificial values, but it also gives every man a chance for a little sharp practice and man is so constituted that he always takes advantage of it. Government control affords some measure of relief, but never brings complete relief, because it cannot take into account the varying conditions in the different communities of the land. An example of this was furnished when the fuel administration took hold last winter. Coal which was selling at 16 cents a bushel in Peoria was immediately raised to 18 cents in order to "equalize" conditions with the east. Here is illustrated the essential weakness of the whole system of government price control. As soon as the artificial demand created by the war stops a sharp reaction is bound to ensue and we will have trouble. So long as the manufacturer is selling his product to the American, British and French they cannot wait for the stuff, but must have it at once. Thus, if the workmen employed in such a plant demand 10 per cent increase or 20 per cent increase or any other per cent, the employer grandly grants it and "passes" the buck to the government. When, however, he is compelled to go out and peddle his product to Jones, Smith or Brown, he is faced by entirely different conditions. Messrs. Jones, Smith or Brown are not at war and they can wait in order to get a price. They will not, therefore, pay any price and the manufacturer must bid for business. He cannot, therefore pay his men higher wages than the market will permit him to and the result is bound to be economic disturbance. This is what we will face after the war, and it is a condition our manufacturers and bankers may as well get ready to meet. —Peoria Star.

Without a note, purely from memory, a blind girl wrote a verbatim report of a sermon lasting three quarters of an hour, which was delivered in All Souls' Church in London.

RIPPLING RHYMS

By Walt Mason

I do not like the sawdust bread I eat three times a day; I'd like a nice white loaf instead—but nothing do I say. I summon up a cheerful grin, a beaming smile, I wet, and push the coarse brown slices in, as though they hit the spot. Our fighting soldiers need the wheat, to keep their strength and life, and I am thankful I may eat whatever stuff is left. So bring along your wooden loaf, and slice it with a straw; I am not cheap, disloyal out, the line at that to draw. I do not like to eat a hen, when I prefer a steak; but, lining up with loyal men, no protest do I make. If beef is needed over there, to help suppress the Hun, I'll feed myself on grizzly bear, if I can find my gun. The soldiers need the beef and wheat, that Germany may fail; it does not matter what I eat, or if I eat at all. I like some sugar in my tea, I like it on my rice, but Hoover lately said to me, "Make one more sacrifice!" And so I make the fragrant brew, and sweeten it with salt. I'm eating things I detest, I'm drinking things I hate, and all the time I do my best to keep my smile on straight. With cheerful brow, with queenly grace, obey all rules in sight; the patriot with grizzly face is only half way right.

The annual boys' camp of the Y. M. C. A. will be held this year from August 1st to August 10th at Mercedosia Bay, under direction of J. S. Finley and Harry Walker. The boys' summer camp is conducted for the purpose of giving the boys an outing surrounded by the kind influences which will be elevating and helpful, at the same time giving him, the very best kind of a time, with enough restrictions placed upon him to keep him safe from harm. Past experiences prove that a boy has a most excellent time, but that no boy can spend ten days in the camp and not receive some specific benefit. They're taken through a helpful course of bible study and daily devotions. They are taught to become familiar with water, how to swim, to save life, to give aid to partially drowned persons, and many other practical things. They learn to be self reliant and careful of the welfare of others, and in various ways lessons are given them that can only make for the good.

The superintendent reserves the right to send any boy home who does not obey all rules of the camp and suggestions of those in charge. The visitors' day to the camp will be Tuesday, August 6th.

ILLINOIS AND HER PIGS.

In the hog families, consisting of about 3,000 head, belonging to the State institutions operated by the Department of Public Welfare, there are many different kinds of porkers.

Some are aristocrats and family trees and they hardly associate with the common ones "outside of their set." They resent the statement that "pigs are pigs," and the story "what's time to a hog," is not popular in "big circles."

Hogs must be bred in the purple to be noticed by this class of swine. These aristocratic families are the Berkshires, the Poland Chinas, the Durocs, the Hampshires and the Chester Whites.

The latest acquisition to hog aristocracy is the Tamsworth, a descendant of the razorback, he having graduated from the woods, swamps and river bottoms of the south. He is not a pretty animal with his long narrow bacon type body and his long snout, but this is off set by many other good qualities. He raises large families to keep his breed from becoming extinct. His ancestry known as hazelsplitters lived by their wits in the wilds of the southern States and his sturdiness, alertness and pep are attributed to outdoor life and pig calisthenics. Now that he no longer has to hustle for the nuts and is fed on rich institution swill with standard caloric value, he is doing his bit to increase the bacon supply and the other pork products which have become necessities in America. At the Illinois State Reformatory the profits from the hogs have been estimated at $50.00 a day. Wherever the hogs are kept in the institutions, they have proven to be a source of profit. Care is taken to immunize them against cholera. Patient labor is used to care for them. Very little corn is fed.

It is estimated that there are over 2,000,000 hogs in Illinois. The hog's vacation time is during the State fair. Those with the best showing as to type and taking on flesh will be shown to the public.

One of the Illinois institutions is equipped with a modern miniature packing house plant where it has facilities to butcher hogs for institution consumption. This plant utilizes "everything about the hog except the squeal."

OSLER THEORY IS DISCARDED IN WAR.

Washington, D. C. July 23.—On neither side is the present great war being fought by "young Napoleons." With scarcely an exception the leaders are veterans.

Hindenburg, the "ace" among the German commanders, and whose death has been rumored recently, was born more than seventy years ago. For the Allied commander-in-chief, is sixty-seven; Clemenceau, the French premier, is seventy-seven; President Wilson and General Petain are both sixty-two, and Admiral Sims is sixty.

The fore-going are run close by the Kaiser, who is fifty-nine; General Pershing, fifty-eight; Sir Douglas Haig, fifty-seven; General Diaz, the Italian commander, fifty-seven; Premier Lloyd George, fifty-five, and von Ludendorff, fifty-three.

Y. M. C. A. MAKES CANDY FOR AMERICAN SOLDIERS.

Paris, July 23.—A thousand tons of sugar said to have been destined for Germany is now being turned into candy for American soldiers in France. Swiss agents had purchased the sugar in the United States. When the shipment arrived at a French port the government learned that it would remain in Switzerland just long enough for reshipment into Germany. The sugar was stored in a French warehouse where it remained for three years and recently it was sold at auction.

The Young Men's Christian Association purchased the sugar and now the association factories in France are busy manufacturing dainties for the soldiers.

The system of the "sugar card" in France entitles one to one pound of sugar per month, five hundred grammes. About the 25th of the month there are many who have their coffee "without."

NIGHT OPERATOR—ALL IN VINOL Made Him Feel Better, Look Better, Sleep Better.

Springfield, Miss.—I am a night operator—was all run down couldn't sleep—had no ambition—I had tried blood and nerve tonics without help—and thought I would try Vinol and I must say it has built me up so I feel better, look better and sleep better.—Charles T. Harder.

The reason Vinol was so successful in Mr. Harder's case, is because it contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a weakened, run down system, make rich, red blood and create strength. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

INACTIVE KIDNEYS Cause Disease

"I shall not soon forget the benefits I derived from the use of Foley Kidney Pills."—Al. A. Godfrey, Forest Grove, Oregon.

Too much work and too little work seem to have about the same effect on persons past middle age. Proper action of the kidneys is necessary to good health. They act as a filter and remove from the blood poisonous waste matter which if permitted to remain in the system leads to many complications.

Many nervous, tired, run down men and women suffer from pains in the back and sides, dizzy spells, bladder weakness, sore muscles and stiff joints and fail to realize that rheumatism, diabetes or even Bright's disease may result.

If you have cause to believe that your kidneys are weak, disordered or inactive you should act immediately. Foley Kidney Pills have been used by young, middle aged and old with complete satisfaction. They act quickly and surely and have given relief in cases of ten years' standing.

NIGHT OPERATOR—ALL IN VINOL Made Him Feel Better, Look Better, Sleep Better.

Springfield, Miss.—I am a night operator—was all run down couldn't sleep—had no ambition—I had tried blood and nerve tonics without help—and thought I would try Vinol and I must say it has built me up so I feel better, look better and sleep better.—Charles T. Harder.

The reason Vinol was so successful in Mr. Harder's case, is because it contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a weakened, run down system, make rich, red blood and create strength. INACTIVE KIDNEYS Cause Disease

"I shall not soon forget the benefits I derived from the use of Foley Kidney Pills."—Al. A. Godfrey, Forest Grove, Oregon.

Too much work and too little work seem to have about the same effect on persons past middle age. Proper action of the kidneys is necessary to good health. They act as a filter and remove from the blood poisonous waste matter which if permitted to remain in the system leads to many complications.

Many nervous, tired, run down men and women suffer from pains in the back and sides, dizzy spells, bladder weakness, sore muscles and stiff joints and fail to realize that rheumatism, diabetes or even Bright's disease may result.

If you have cause to believe that your kidneys are weak, disordered or inactive you should act immediately. Foley Kidney Pills have been used by young, middle aged and old with complete satisfaction. They act quickly and surely and have given relief in cases of ten years' standing.

CARDINAL GIBBONS IS 85 YEARS OLD

Famous Prelate Yesterday Celebrated Important Anniversary—Messages of Greeting.

Baltimore, Md., July 23.—His eminence, James Cardinal Gibbons today enters upon his eighty-fifth year. The birthday anniversary is one of interest not only to himself, but to the people of the whole United States, in which he is the prelate of the Roman Catholic church.

The Cardinal planned no special observance of the day, but nevertheless, he was frequently reminded of the occasion by the receipt of messages of greeting from friends and admirers in all parts of the country. A particularly felicitous message from Rome conveyed the congratulations and good wishes of the Pontiff.

Cardinal Gibbons has frequently been spoken of as a typical American. As a churchman the highest regard for him and look to him as a veritable shepherd. But the high esteem in which he is held is not by any means confined to those of his own faith. Abundant evidence of this fact was furnished in the telegrams and letters of greeting which poured in at the archbishop's residence in this city today, and which bore the name of eminent clergy and laity of many religious denominations. All joined in expressing the hope that the venerable prelate will live to see many more celebrations of his birthday anniversary.

The Cardinal is now the oldest member of the Sacred College in point of service and one of the oldest in years. For a quarter of a century he was the only prelate in the United States in the College of Cardinals. John Cardinal McCloskey, archbishop of New York, the first cardinal in this country, and the only one up to the time Archbishop Gibbons was created a cardinal, died October 19, 1885. Rome waited less than a year to elevate James Gibbons, of Baltimore. He was nominated as cardinal and invested with the princely insignia June 30, 1886, by Pope Leo XIII.

He is one of the few remaining cardinals created by that pontiff. Cardinal Gibbons was born in Baltimore July 23, 1834. His parents were natives of Ireland and during his boyhood he was taken to that country, where he received the elements of a liberal education. On his return to America he entered St. Charles Seminary, where, after taking the usual courses in theology and philosophy, he was ordained a priest in 1861. The young priest labored hard and faithfully, and soon won recognition from his ecclesiastical superiors. Within a few years he was elevated to the desirable position of private secretary to Archbishop Spaulding. In this position he displayed such unusual ability that he was recommended by the Archbishop for promotion to the episcopate. In due course of appointment came as vicar apostolic of North Carolina. Four years later he was transferred to the see at Richmond, Va., following the death of Bishop McGill. His next promotion came in 1877, when he was appointed coadjutor with the right of succession to the Archbishop of Baltimore.

Cardinal Gibbons is one of the most democratic of men—plain, unostentatious and distinguished for good sense in everything he does. On the streets of Baltimore he is known to everyone and he answers in a friendly manner the salutations of the humblest. Throughout his life it has been his custom to take an evening walk. On such occasions he displays a healthy interest in everything around him. A new building going up, a new picture in a store window, or some interesting occurrence all interest the great churchman, who is always human and never above the affairs of life.

Few of those who casually meet the Cardinal realize his advanced age. His vitality has caused expressions of amazement many times and this vigor is attributed to his systematic method of living. Every hour of the day is regulated. His food is light but substantial and he takes his meals at regular hours. Much of his time is spent in his library, which is one of the most extensive in the South. He is well up on the news of the day and general library and public questions, which leads to the assumption that he reads the papers diligently. Probably no man in America has followed the progress of the great war with keener or more patriotic interest. Out of his own purse he has contributed generously to the various war relief funds, and in many of the patriotic movements he has taken an initiative part.

CENSUS SHOWS MANY CHINESE OUTLAWS

Shantung Leads Five Provinces in Outlaw Population—Many Believed to Be Disbanded Soldiers of Chang Hsun.

Washington, July.—Following the recent capture of three American engineers by bandits in China, a census of Chinese outlaws has been made showing that in five provinces there are a total of 37,000 brigands. The total does not include the bandits of Mongolia, who are very numerous and have been extremely active this year, nor does it include those of Honan, where the Americans were taken prisoners.

Shantung leads the five Chinese provinces in outlaw population, having 19,000. Shensi has 7,000. Anhwei 5,000; Hunan 3,000 and Fukien 3,000. The largest single band is in Shantung, under the leadership of Fan Yu-lin, who rules a veritable principality inhabited by 7,000. Yu Shan-he who follows number 6,000 is the chief rival of Fan Yu-lin.

The daring of the brigands in Shantung recently became so open that the Tsuchun of the province, Chang Hsun-chin, asked permission to resign his command as a leader of the army against the disaffected southern provinces, and return to his own state to restore order. Many of the bandits are believed to be disbanded soldiers of Chang Hsun, who endeavored to restore the monarchy, but was defeated and took refuge in the Dutch legation at Peking.

The Shantung bandits not long ago abducted three American missionaries and an American employee of the British-American tobacco company, but let them go after a brief captivity. G. A. Kyle, of Portland, Ore., and the two other engineers, captured in Honan were not so fortunate, however. Besides losing all their personal property and $12,000 they were carrying to pay off workmen employed on a new railroad, they were kept many days, enduring the hardships of long marches and wretched surroundings.

U-BOAT COMMANDER IN UNUSUAL ACTION

After Sinking British Vessel, Submarine Commander Gave Survivors Bandages and Liniment for Their Wounds—Action Saved Many Lives.

London, June 20.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—One instance in which an enemy submarine commander, after sinking a British vessel, amazed the survivors by giving them bandages and liniment for their wounds, stands out in sharp contrast with the brutality or indifference to suffering practiced by the German sea pirates. Nevertheless the survivors tell a story of extreme hardship endured in small boats for six days and nights. Seventeen are missing of the ship's company of ninety-five.

Five hundred miles from the Irish coast a large British steamer, outward bound in ballast, received a torpedo death blow. No time was lost by the ship's company in getting away from the sinking ship.

Many of the crew had been wounded, especially among the engine room force. With difficulty the injured were placed in the boats.

The submarine suddenly appeared nearby and the commander came on deck. He noticed the wounded and calling the boats alongside his craft, he went inside, returning with bandages and liniment, which he handed to the surprised officers in charge of the boats. This act of kindness saved several lives.

A steamer's smoke was seen on the horizon and the U-boat made off rapidly. The small boats shaped a course toward land, but the wind was light and unfavorable.

Only a small store of biscuits was carried. There was water enough for a very limited ration and in the days that followed the sun's heat was almost intolerable. Wounded Lascars succumbed, one after another and were consigned to the sea.

On the fifth day a vessel hove in sight and bore down toward them. Then it seemed to change, its mind steamed off in another direction. Probably the ship thought the small boats were German submarine decoys.

Torture reached its limits the next day. Previously the officers had resorted to physical force to prevent the Lascars from drinking the salt water. Now nothing could restrain them and they drank eagerly. Soon afterward two died of their sufferings.

Hope had almost died when late that evening a vessel sighted and picked them up. They were landed in Ireland.

THIS DRAWING IS FROM A PHOTOGRAPH—That's why it means so much

It's from an actual photograph of Frieda Hempel of the Metropolitan Opera singing in direct comparison with her own voice on the New Edison.

"But what's remarkable about this?" you ask. The amazing fact which we want to drive home is that no human ear could distinguish the artist from the instrument; so perfect is the Re-Creation. This is what we call the tone test. And it proves the truth of the Edison Company's claims about

The New Edison
"The Phonograph with a Soul"

It proves that the instrument does Re-Create, not merely imitate. Hundreds of these tone tests have been conducted. More than 2,000,000 people have attended them. And not one could say when it was the artist he heard and when the instrument. With the lights lowered to hide the singer's lips the audience was completely baffled.

DESULTORY BOMBING AN EXCITING TASK

Object is to Distract Attention of Anti-Aircraft Defenders of a Given District—Airmen Repeatedly Return to Attack.

Behind British Lines In France, July — (Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—One of the most exciting tasks to which airmen are assigned is known as "desultory bombing" over an spot for an hour or more. The object is to distract the attention of the anti-aircraft defenders of a given district and a machine carrying a dozen or more bombs is employed for the work.

At first the airmen, a pilot and an observer, approach their target cautiously. With engines throttled down, the craft glides nearer and nearer. Below all is quiet. No German searchlights are sweeping the sky. When the attackers are almost over their objective a rocket rises toward them and bursts into a cluster of red stars. The machine has been discovered. At once six or seven searchlights throw their beams aloft. The pilot looks at his watch. It is time to begin his desultory bombing.

He flies steadily on, although a barrage of bursting shells lies now in front of him. The observer looks thru the wires of his bomb sight to the ground below. At the proper instant he thrusts his lever forward and releases two bombs. A few seconds later he sees the flash of their exploding and above the crackling barrage of bursting shells lies a target. He signals to the pilot and the machine turns and sweeps away from the fiery rings of shells and searchlights.

A few miles away the airplane flies to and fro at top speed. The puzzled searchlights vainly feel the sky in all directions and then, one by one, are switched off.

Then the pilot quickly moves again toward the target. Another bomb is dropped. As it explodes the searchlights reappear and the barrage is renewed while the thickly grouped shells burst are threaded the chains of green flaming globes, so much used by the Germans.

Again the machine flies away and this time, to bewilder still more the soldiers below, the observer fires a white very light which slowly drifts below and fades out. All the searchlights follow it until it dies.

GEORGE V DESCRIBED AS DEMOCRATIC KING

Woman Correspondent of Parisian Paper Writes of Visit to Buckingham Palace on Occasion of Open Air Investiture—Aged Man Completes Long Walk.

Paris, July — (Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—George V is described as a "democratic king" by a woman correspondent of the Parisian paper who writes of her visit to Buckingham Palace on the occasion of an open air investiture.

"The sight of King George in the midst of his people at this ceremony filled me with mingled astonishment and admiration," she asserts. "When the American representatives said that with King George they had no impression of being in the presence of a king, they bestowed the highest praise on one who is only, and who is quite content to be only, the first gentleman of his kingdom."

"There is no difficulty about getting in for one of these investitures. It is unnecessary to use any influence or provide oneself with a letter of introduction, or even a ticket of admission—the King of England is to be seen by everybody."

"I noted the simplicity of his costume. There is nothing to distinguish him outwardly from all the others."

"While 'God Save the King' is being played he stands at the salute, holding himself quite straight, his grave frank countenance full of one of dignity and kindness. There is no hysterical enthusiasm, but in all eyes may be seen the kind of trust and esteem and affectionate pleasure with which one looks upon a kingman or a friend of whom one is proud."

"We have here a truly democratic sovereign, one who instead of imposing his will upon the people feels that he incarnates their sentiments and wishes, who associates himself with their labors and shares their anxieties and ordeals, who fulfills his difficult role simply and unconsciously."

London, July — E. N. Radford, who more than 80 years old, has just completed for the 48th time, his annual walk from Bristol to London, with the object, he says, of teaching the people of England "common sense in regard to meat and drink." At the conclusion of the long walk, every year, he delivers a lecture in Hyde Park, finding for his text a passage from the first chapter of Daniel.

"Let them give us pulse to eat and water to drink. And their countenance waxed fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the King's meat. And in all matters of wisdom and understanding that the King inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm."

Mr. Radford is a veteran of the Crimean war, and in his speech he always recalls the march of his old regiment from Portsmouth to London to attend the funeral of the Iron Duke in 1852.

"I was then, as I am now, a teetotaler and non-smoker," he says. "Therefore I am able to walk and talk, and tell people how to be happy without drinks and medicine. My annual walk of 200 miles is just a pleasure jaunt. After it is over, I always take another walk up into Wiltshire and spend the next four months walking on a farm."

PLAN TO AID GERMAN WAR WORKERS FAILS.

Amsterdam, July — The "voluntary" surrender of worn clothing for the benefit of war workers in Germany is turning out a complete failure.

The brief initial rush which was motivated by expectations of obtaining exemption from the threatened forcible emptying of wardrobes, soon died down. Berlin, which was expected to yield forty thousand suits, has not supplied half that number and the same tale comes from all other centers.

The period for bringing in the clothing had to be extended everywhere and bonuses given as at Schoonevelding powder.

Eugen is the first town where steps have already been taken for an official inspection of private wardrobes, but others will inevitably follow. In the meantime, there are many indignant letters in the newspapers from citizens who patriotically deny themselves articles of clothing and which they are now told are not good enough for imitation workers. Complaint is made that the latter earn much more money and live in better style than the disappointed benefactors.

SHATTER WORLD'S RECORDS AT TOLEDO

Miss Harris M. Paces First Mile in 1:58 1/4—In Second Heat of Event Geers Drives Single G the Distance in 1:59 1/2.

In the second heat of the event Geers drove Single G, a mile in 1:59 1/2, giving that horse a new record and establishing a record for the fastest two paced heats. WILL HONOR SOLDIERS GONE OVERSEAS

Rome, N. Y., Originates Special Plans for Keeping in Touch With the "Boys Over There."

In these days the business men of the different communities vie with each other in the commendable effort to show the soldiers at the front that interest in them is fully maintained while they are overseas. Various plans have been inaugurated by cities and organizations, all with the same good end in view. The Rome (N. Y.) Sentinel of which A. C. Kessinger is the editor, tells of the plan which the Chamber of Commerce of that city has adopted for honoring enlisted men.

Mr. Kessinger is the husband of Mrs. Rena French Kessinger and is known to a number of Morgan county people. A paper which makes mention of the plan was recently received by Mrs. Kessinger's uncle, A. L. French, Rome, N. Y. has taken on marvelous activity since the war began. There are a number of factories there which have been turned into war munitions plants, with a consequent rapid enlargement of working forces.

The paragraphs mentioned were as follows:

"In two different ways the Rome Chamber of Commerce has determined to let the 'boys over there' and their relatives and friends at home know that they have not been forgotten and that their memory is duly cherished at home.

"First it has been decided that a semi-monthly news letter is to be sent to all 'boys' and navy men in all branches. This news letter is to contain items of interest about Rome and county events which is thought will appeal to the brave lads who have entered the lists to 'lick the Hun' at all costs.

"Secondly a bulletin board containing an honor roll of all enlisted men in all branches of the service is to be erected. This honor roll will be arranged alphabetically as to names and according to service and condition of the men.

"The bulletin board is to be placed in a conspicuous place in the city of Rome in a weather-proof case where it may be viewed at all times by those interested. Considerable expense will be involved in this proposition but it is thought by chamber officials that the honor is very necessary.

"Already a list of the names of enlisted men from Rome is being compiled and every effort is being exercised to secure correct names and addresses for the two purposes above mentioned so that inaccuracies in both may be avoided.

"Over eight hundred names already are available for both purposes as more than this number have joined the colors in the several branches of the armed forces of the nation. While some difficulty is being experienced in obtaining the information required, no effort is being spared. Appeals have not only been made to the relatives and friends of the enlisted men but also to the War and Navy Departments and the Adjutant General's office.

"The first semi-monthly news letter is being mailed and a competent committee has in charge the honor roll matter. Considerable favorable comment has been occasioned by this spirit as exhibited by the Chamber of Commerce and a number of inquiries have been received from other commercial bodies regarding the details of the two undertakings. Officers declare it to be the intention to duly honor enlisted men."

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jones have returned to Chicago after spending two weeks visiting with her mother and sister, Mrs. Mollie Turner, 724 Bedford street.

KANSAS CITY MARKETS.

Kansas City Stock Yards, Monday, July 23, 1918.—Shipments out of stockers and feeders last week were close to 18,000 head, nearly double the movement of the previous week, and 3,000 more than same week last year. Good stock cattle held about steady, sales ranging up to $12.75 but common kinds got slow action, some cattle as low as $6.25, and the packers finally took some of the low bred steers, with a little flesh, at prices under $8. Feeders sold freely all week, at steady prices, mostly $11.50 to $13.50, which prices are at a remarkable margin under fat cattle prices, and therefore apparently safe. A few fleshy feeders sold up to $16, and one lot brot $17, to a feeder buyer, weighing 1020 pounds, highest price ever paid here for feeding cattle. Rains last week over most of the country improved the outlook, but Kansas and Missouri grass needs more rain, the Kansas hay crop prospects short at this time. The supply here Monday of this week was 25,000 head, including 2,400 calves; market steady on good cattle of all grades but weak on trashy kinds. The stocker and feeder prices of last week are in force today, with a rather limited number of sales of stock steers at $8 and less. Stock cow demand from the country is extremely light and packers are taking most of these cows at $7.50 or less, as canners. The big rise in fat hog values has put them far above stock pigs, which sold at the public market Monday of this week at $17 to $17.25, about $1.25 under fat hog prices. That is to say, vaccinating and dipping charges may be paid, and stock pigs still cost less per pound than fat hogs are bringing. Feeding lambs are higher, though offerings are scarce; good range feeders' worth around $15.

WORK OF THE ARMY INTERPRETERS.

Paris, July 23.—Amongst the hardest worked men on the western front these days are the members of the famous corps of interpreters, generally known as the "Liaison Officers." Their special duty is to act as a sort of connecting link between the American and British and the French and Belgian armies. As there are considerably more than one million Americans and probably twice as many Englishmen in France at the present time, very few indeed of whom are conversant with any language other than their own, it will be readily understood that the interpreter's job is no sinecure.

The L. O. has to translate verbal messages of every description often brought by ignorant French and Flemish peasants, speaking a dialect that not infrequently puzzles even their more enlightened countrymen.

The corps of interpreters, too, has to arrange for the billeting of American and British troops in French and Belgian villages, to conduct negotiations with the enemy country folk for food and fodder, to interrogate peasants suspected of espionage and so forth.

Liaison officers do not wear a distinctive uniform but a gilt sphinx on the collars of their tunics. Facetious American soldiers assert that this badge was selected for the "Liaisons" because nobody can understand them.

Mrs. William Hetml and sister, Miss Margaret McGinnis, are spending a few days visiting in Chicago.

PLAN TO DEVELOP POST-WAR ACTIVITIES

American Chamber of Commerce in London Hopes to Work Out Method of Developing American Export Business After the War—Exporters Must Study Territory.

London, July 23.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—The American Chamber of Commerce in London is endeavoring to work out a practical plan for the co-operation of American export firms for post war activities so as to prevent a scramble for new business after the war.

The London body has sent invitations to twenty of the leading foreign trade organizations in America and elsewhere to send suggestions. From these it is hoped it may be possible to work out a composite method of developing American export business.

Officers of the chamber say this will comprise preaching to exporters the necessity of carefully studying territory and of exporting goods for which there is the greatest need and for which there is the least competition.

Since the American labor delegation visited England and France a desire has been expressed for the visit of a delegation of business men. Should this not be done during the war the American Chamber of Commerce here proposes to have such an interchange of ideas after the war.

PAN-GERMANIST HAD NARROW ESCAPE

New York, July 23.—Grand Admiral von Tirpitz, leader of the Fatherland Party and one of the most rabid of Pan-Germanists, had a narrow escape from being handled roughly by an angry crowd at the railroad station at Freienwalde, Brandenburg, recently, according to a letter published in Vorwaerts of Berlin, a copy of which has been received here.

A passenger train was crowded and excited passengers were struggling to get on when one discovered a compartment in which sat one man by himself.

A rush was made for the compartment, but the door was not opened. Force was about to be used when the conductor opened the compartment. The lone passenger looked at the intruders, removed his hat to show his bald head and stroked his beard. It was Admiral von Tirpitz. He maintained a studied silence even when some stepped up to him and cried out:

"Yes, that the way the Fatherland people are. The preserve for themselves the comfortable compartments and don't care if the people next door are crushed to death."

No reply was vouchered and no passenger dared take a seat in the admiral's compartment.

Miss Helen Morris, assistant in the office of the county agent, has returned from a visit at the home of her grandparents in Cairo.

PROPOSED TOBACCO RATIONING FAUS

Amsterdam, July 23.—The proposed rationing of tobacco in Austria has come to a ludicrous and ignominious end. The number of individual applications from smokers was prodigious. In Vienna alone it was calculated that scores of thousands of smokers must have registered as tobacco consumers presumably for the benefit of friends. The result would have been apportionment of about one cigarette daily to each applicant. The whole scheme has now been dropped.

THRESHING OUTFITS SHUT DOWN FOR REPAIR

Two Ordered By State Inspector to Stop Work—Stricter Rules About Wastage.

C. S. Mills, state inspector of threshing machine outfits, was in Jacksonville yesterday, in consultation with Charles T. Mackness, who has had general charge of threshing inspection and organization work in Morgan county. Mr. Mills spent the greater part of the day with J. T. Sample, one of the county district inspectors, in visiting a number of threshing outfits which were in operation yesterday.

As a result of this inspection work two of the owners of threshing machines were notified to discontinue the use of this equipment until certain repairs and adjustments are made. It was found that these machines are wasting the grain, entirely too much going into the piles of straw. In conversation Mr. Mills said that he had been surprised to find how many Illinois farmers there are who haul grain in beds that are not tight.

A very considerable loss occurs in this way, strange as it may seem, for farmers to be negligent about a matter in which their own welfare is so much concerned. As a result of the condition Mr. Mills said there would be a requirement next year with reference to the condition of farm wagon beds. Another thing about which the state farm work organization is concerned is the matter of plowing for wheat. Farmers are being urged to plow deeper than they have been doing in the past, in order to conserve moisture and to make for better crop conditions next year. As previously noted, a state wide effort is being made to have Illinois wheat acreage increased by 25 per cent.

TWO MORE STUDEBAKER CARS SOLD

Charles M. Strawn, distributor of Studebaker cars, has sold and delivered a 4 cylinder roadster to George G. Ryan of Alexander precinct. Mr. Strawn has also sold and delivered to a well known farmer living northwest of Alexander a 6 cylinder touring car. The Studebaker meets every requirement for a good and handsome car.

CROSS COUNTRY AUTO TRAVELERS.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Anderson, of Gainesville, Fla., were automobile visitors in Jacksonville yesterday and left last night on their way to the west. They will be in Quincy today and in Kansas City tomorrow. They are making the trip by easy stages, combining business with pleasure. They started from Florida March 30, and have been in various cities in the south and spent the last three weeks in Chicago.

Their journey will carry them clear to California and then back again to their home in the south. Already the speedometer on their Maxwell car shows that they have traveled 4,000 miles, and they are expecting to cover three times that mileage before their journey is completed. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson have their three-year-old daughter with them and carry a complete camping outfit. Most nights they find some satisfactory camp site and occasionally seek hotels.

WANTED

Two teamsters, steady employment.

Cherry's Livery.

RECORD WHEAT YIELD.

The largest yield of wheat which has been reported in Morgan county so far was that threshed on the farm of Mrs. Emma Smith just west of Jacksonville on the Mound Road. Mrs. Smith had two fields of the Turkey Red wheat, one of 20 acres and the other of 16 acres. The two yielded just 1800 bushels of grain or fifty bushels per acre. The threshing was done by the Gabe Christian outfit.

WANTED

Two teamsters, steady employment.

Cherry's Livery.

The freight cars in use on the railroads of the United States, if placed end to end, would stretch continuously for over twenty thousand miles.

JOY PRAIRIE CHURCH PROPERTY IS SOLD

Trustees Dispose of Both Land and Buildings—Red Cross and Missionary Society Will Benefit.

Trustees of the Joy Prairie Congregational church recently asked for bids on the church property, as it had been found advisable to discontinue services. As previously noted, the membership of the church has been reduced to a very small number by the fact of removals from the neighborhood and further because many of the earlier members had passed on. The trustees committee included Thurlow Pratt, W. T. Cowdin and L. P. Cowdin. Several bids were received and were accepted as follows: Parsonage and lot, together with barn, $500, sold to W. T. Cowdin; church structure, to H. P. Joy, $260.

The land on which the church and parsonage were originally built was deeded by the late Alfred Williams and Esther Williams, his wife, for church purposes. There was a provision in the deed that if the property was disposed of for any other purpose that the land should revert to the original owner. The only surviving heir of Mr. and Mrs. Williams is Arthur Williams, of Colorado Springs. He, however, waived his rights and it was his wish that the money from the real estate should be donated to the Red Cross. The trustees value the realty at $300, and this amount will, therefore, become a part of the Red Cross fund. The remaining $260 from the sale of the parsonage and lot, by direction of the trustees, will be sent to Mrs. H. M. Tupper, wife of a former pastor of the church, to be used for Thorsby Institute, in Alabama, where Mrs. Tupper is now resident.

While no definite disposition has been made of the remaining sum, it is understood that it will be used for missionary purposes. The trustees still have the organ and church furnishings, which they have authority to dispose of at private sale.

Big sale on Fancy Free Stone Alberta peaches for canning today and Wednesday. Everyone should take advantage of this opportunity to secure at least one bushel of these peaches as the present week will wind up the peach crop for this season. W. S. Cannon Produce Co., Distributors.

GARDEN NOTES

Onions.

A great many persons are very fond of early onions and would like to know how they can have them in their home gardens as early as March 1. This I learned last year when I offered winter onion sets for sale.

All you have to do is to prepare your ground just as you do in the spring when you set your spring onion sets. Set them the last of July or the first of August in the same manner as you do your spring onion sets. In 1916 I set mine August 5th and they were ready for use March 1, 1917.

However, that was rather unusual. We had had plenty of rain I had the soil in first class condition and kept it that way. Another year I set them September 11th and we pulled the first, April 5th. So the reason for setting is rather lengthy—I would say from July 20 to Sept. 20, but the earlier they are set the earlier they will be ready in the spring. Last year I sold all the sets I had at 20c per quart and this year you will find one article that has not gone up "on account of the war."

J. G. Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Howell, formerly of Jacksonville and now of Kankakee, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Drennan, of Springfield, have returned home, after making a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. John S. Sheppard, of Sandusky street and other friends. They drove thru Mr. Howell's car and their many Jacksonville friends were glad of the opportunity to see them.

JOHN PARR INJURED IN AUTOMOBILE WRECK

Local Man Suffers Painful Injuries When Car Turns Turtle on Litterberry Road—C. H. Philleo, Driver of Car, Escapes Injury.

John Parr, a traveling salesman of this city, suffered painful cuts and bruises when a car in which he was riding turned turtle on the Litterberry road, Tuesday morning. C. H. Philleo, the driver, was thrown clear of the car and escaped with only slight bruises.

Mr. Parr and Mr. Philleo had started for Virginia in a Ford car owned by the latter. When about three miles out on the Litterberry road Mr. Philleo reached back for something in the rear seat. He lost temporary control of the car, which ran over an embankment and struck a telephone pole and overturned. Philleo was thrown clear of the car, but Parr was pinned under it.

He was extricated and rushed to this city and taken to the residence of James Silcox, of West College street, where his injuries were attended to by Dr. C. E. Cole. Examination revealed a severe cut on the right leg, just below the knee, and painful bruises about the body.

About two years ago Mr. Parr was in an automobile accident, in which he received painful injuries. While his injuries are not serious they will confine him to the house for some time.

MISS ATKINS TALKED TO LOCAL CHAPTER

Representing the Department of Children's Industry of the Woman's Council of National Defense—Tells of Work Being Done.

Miss Elsie Atkins who is representing the Department of Children's Industry of the Woman's Council of National Defense, of the Illinois division spoke at the home of Mrs. Paul Alexander, 149 Caldwell street, yesterday afternoon to the local chapter of the National Defense Council.

Miss Atkins' home is in Minneapolis where she has been in charge of the vocational Placement department of the Public Schools for several years. She has secured a leave of absence for four months during which time she is traveling in Illinois, representing the National Defense Council.

The State Committee of the Council has a program which it is presenting to all local chapters of which Mrs. Alexander is chairman in Jacksonville.

The substance of the program that is being presented follows:

1—100 per cent efficiency in the enforcement of all child labor laws as far as the schools can enforce them the physical examination being very important.

2—100 per cent compulsory education.

3—The establishment of continuation classes for the working boys and girls, by which they are to be permitted to attend classes during working hours, a certain number of hours each week with out the loss of pay.

4—The establishment of vocational placement bureaus in charge of trained social workers, who will study the various occupations for boys and girls of 14 years of age, and place them in good positions. Then to do follow up work and as it accumulates it will mean we will have an industrial survey.

The making of a city ordinance which will control the street industry, such as the selling of newspapers, by children under 12 years of age.

The meeting was very well attended and the members expressed themselves as favoring very much Miss Atkins' work, and enjoyed her instructive talk greatly. She will remain in the city a few days making a survey of the conditions here, and to what degree such work as she is interested in is being carried out.

DR. COCHRAN ACQUIRES PROPERTY

Dr. C. C. Cochran, 309 West College avenue has purchased the David Cole property at the northwest corner of West Morgan street and South West street, from John E. Cole, who is executor of his father's will, Clark S. Cole. Clark Cole was the son of David Cole who bought this property in 1845 from Nimrod Deweese. The house and shop were built of black walnut and are standing now as they were originally built. David Cole was instrumental in the founding of Diamond Grove cemetery and arranged for the dedication of it. Mrs. Cole was the only woman present at the dedication.

No change will be made in the property at the present time, although Dr. Cochran expects to retain it and when building conditions are better he will probably make some changes and improvements.
